(Saturday 3:30 PM, Sunday 11 PM ET)

Ted Conover; Jeff Sharlet; Ken Silverstein; Bill Wasik, Submersion Journalism

Insightful author interviews
Saturday 10 PM, Sunday 9 PM and Monday 12 AM ET

Paul Escott, What Shall We Do with the Negro? Lincoln, White Racism and Civil War America
This week, from George Mason University in Fairfax, Virginia, historian Paul Escott argues in his new book that the policies of Abraham Lincoln presented a politician more concerned with reunification than the future rights of slaves. Mr. Escott discusses his book with Jane Turner Censer, history professor at George Mason University. Following the interview they take questions from students and faculty.
