We have been asked to share the following information with all members of the Key School community:

Andrew Jay Graham and Jean E. Lewis of Kramon & Graham, PA have been retained to conduct an independent factual investigation of alleged instances of adult sexual misconduct involving students at the Key School, and to prepare a report containing their findings. If you believe you have information that is pertinent to the investigation, please contact them at AGraham@kg-law.com or JLewis@kg-law.com or at 410-752-6030 to make arrangements for a confidential interview.
